These papers relate to the recognition of valuable services done by persons in connection with recent floods in the Districts of Mysore, Hassan, Kadur, Shimoga and Chitaldrug.

A perusal of the papers shows that recognition of two distinct classes of services has been considered:--

(1) Recognition of services in affording relief to people in distress

(2) Recognition of plucky and courageous action in the way of saving life, property &c.

The Deputy Commissioners of Mysore, Hassan and Chitaldrug report that there are no such cases in their districts. The Deputy Commissioner of Kadur recommended 9 non-officials and 3 officials for recognition on account of action taken by them in the way of saving life and property either by direct action of their own or by assisting those engaged in it. The Deputy Commissioner of Shimoga recommended 7 non-officials for saving life and property and also Messrs. Agumbe Rama Rao and Ramachandrachar for organising a Relief Committee.

The Revenue Commissioner in his letter of the 18th October recommends that recognition may be given to two persons in Kadur District for plucky and courageous conduct in saving the lives (Hassan Khan and Amir Pacha) and to 3 persons Narasimhiah, Shekdar Rajagopala Iyengar and Coffee Planter Gulam Nabi for saving property at great personal risk.

Submitted to His Highness.

During my visit to Tarikere in the beginning of last month, it was brought to my notice that several persons rendered valuable services in connection with the recent heavy floods. I thereupon called for lists of all such cases from the Deputy Commissioners of Mysore, Hassan, Kadur, Shimoga and Chitaldrug districts.

2. The Deputy Commissioners of Mysore, Hassan and Chitaldrug have reported that there were no such cases in their districts.

V & B

3. The Revenue Commissioner has recommended that the services of the marginally noted 5 persons of Kadur district and 7 of Shimoga for - plucky and courageous conduct in saving lives and property at great personal risk, deserve recognition. These 12 persons may be given money rewards of Rs. 30/- or medals worth Rs. 30/- as may be recommended by the Deputy Commissioners. Besides these, Messrs. Agumbe Rama Rao and Ramachandrachar of Thirthahalli taluk, who have done yeoman service in rescuing people from floods and forming a relief committee deserve some higher recognition and they may be graciously awarded Public Service medals of the First Class with khillats during the next Dasara Durbar.

Kadur District

1. Hussein Khan, son of Abdulla Khan, ex-contractor of Mandagadde ferry, Narasimharajapura sub taluk.
2. Ameer Pacha, son of Mohadin Khan, Narasimharajapura sub-taluk.
3. Patel Narasimhaiya of Sompur.
4. G. Rajagopaliengar, Shekdar, Balehonnur.
5. Gulam Nabi alias Miya Sab, Coffee-planter, Balehonnur.

Shimoga District

Chikmagalur, Dated 9th October 1923.

Dear Mr. Sundara Rao,

As promised yesterday I am enclosing a statement of persons who afforded relief and otherwise helped the distressed during the floods in this District.

2. As regards persons that took an active part in -- enquiring into the condition of the people affected by the floods, I may mention that apart from the local Government Officers, whose names I particularly wish to note in the margin I am not aware of any private individual who has done any such service so far.

1. Mr. Mahomed Ismail Sheriff, B.A., Assistant Commissioner, Tarikere.
2. Mr. S.N. Srinivasa Rao, B.A., Amildar, Koppa.
3. Mr. B. Venkatakrishnappa, B.A., -do- Mudgere.
4. Mr. K.V. Srinivasachar, Amildar, Tarikere.
5. Mr. Y. Srikantayya, B.A., Deputy Amildar, Narasimharajapura.
6. Mr. G. Gundu Rao, B.A., -do- -do-

3. I would be failing in my duty if I omitted to mention the valuable services done by Mr. Garudachar, Executive Engineer who took timely and effective steps for restoring communications damaged by the floods. I am not at all exaggerating when I say that in spite of the difficulties he had to contend against, namely, heavy rain and paucity of labour which had to come all the way from South Canara and which could not come on account of the heavy floods there, he with his tact, ability and hard-work, managed to restore traffic within a very short period much to the surprise of the people living in the malnad.

4. The Revenue Commissioner having called for particulars of individuals who displayed great pluck and courage in -- rescuing the lives of women and children during the recent floods, the same have been sent to him today, and I herein enclose enclose a copy thereof for the information of the Dewan.

Statement showing the names of persons who took an active part in affording ~~an~~ relief and otherwise helping the distressed during ~~the~~ and after the floods.

No.	Taluk.	Name with particulars.	Nature of relief or help rendered.
1.	Koppa.	1. B.Subba Rao, Sheikdar, Koppa. 2. Sivarudriah, Sanitary Inspector, Koppa.	The house of one Narasimhaiya, Shanbhog, Nuggimakki had been surrounded by the floods of the Thunga river on the 7th of August 1923, and the walls of the western portion of the house had collapsed. The building was standing only on the pillars alone. These people were there in time to remove the females and children from that part of the house, before it collapsed under the guidance and instructions of the Amildar Mr.S.N.Srinivasa Rao, whom these had accompanied on inspection duty.
		3. Jogisetti, Sollebile. 4. Hassan Beri, Sollebile.	A cart, while crossing the Makki-Koppa halla, on its way from Guddethota to Balehonnur on the night of the 27th July 1923, was caught in the current and it was held up by a rock in the middle of the stream. There were two persons in the cart, its driver and another. Information reached Sollebile next morning and Jogisetti and Hassan Beri proceeded to the spot in company with a few Police Constables, and rescued the cart, the two persons and one bullock.
2.	Tarikere.	1. S.Narasimhaiya, son of Sivaramiah, Patel and Landholder, Sompur village, Lakkavalli Hobli.	All but one, by name Yalla had gone away to the neighbouring village, when the Somapur village was surrounded by floods in the Bhadra river. As water was rising, he(Yella) got up a tamerind tree and remained there the whole night, the depth of water there being about 6 to 7 feet for a distance of 200 yards. Patel Narasimhaiya swam to the tree the next morning and brought the person safely to the village.

2. L.Krishnappa son of Nanjundiah, Patel and Landholder, Lakkavalli.

When the Bhadra suddenly rushed into Lakkavalli, this man persuaded the villagers and rendered all necessary help to the people to effect prompt and speedy evacuation of their houses, with their belongings.

Narasimha-rajapura.

1. G.Rajagopaliengar, Sheikdar, Balehonnur.

This man displayed great bravery, to the admiration of all the residents, even at the risk of his life, in saving about 60 oil tins of the Sowkar, Srinivasa Prabhu by swimming in the river during the floods. His presence appears to have exercised a great moral influence upon the desperate sufferers.

2. Gulam Nabi alias Miya Sab, son of Mahomed Yasim, Coffee Planter, Balehonnur.

This man in company with the aforesaid Sheikdar constructed a raft and -- succeeded in saving some boxes containing documents and valuables from being washed away by the floods. But being exhausted, he returned and asked the Sheikdar to help him in rescuing the other properties which were floating in the current. The Sheikdar swam to the spot, secured some of the boxes to the raft, swimming in the water 15 to 20 feet deep. Owing to the unequal distribution of the weight on the raft, it was upset and the Sheikdar was caught underneath it. He managed to escape twice from being drowned and returned with the properties, the raft being pulled up by Miya Sab who was on a jack tree which was also under water.

3. Kadekal Kasim Sab.
4. Abdul Rahiman son of Imam Sab.
5. Puttegowda, 6. Beera & 7. Malla.

These men are reported to have helped Amir Pacha in constructing a raft and rescuing the women and children of Haliyur.

Sringeri.

Many of the leading inhabitants of Sringeri, who owned commodious houses on higher levels are reported to have afforded shelter to the sufferers and also fed them on the morning of the 7th August 1923.

With reference to your D.O. letter No. HC.35/HC 18 dated the 9th/10th inst., forwarding a list of persons who rendered ~~good~~ commendable service to the public in connection with the recent floods, I am desired by the Dewan to request you to kindly choose ~~out of these~~ names of the non-official gentlemen who, in your opinion, may be awarded Certificates signed by the Deputy Commissioner with medals of the value of Rs. 30 each.

I ~~also~~ append an extract from the petition presented to the Dewan at Tarikere on the 4th instant by the deputation headed by Mr. Maloor Subba Rao. The Dewan desires to have your opinion about the nature of the services rendered by the gentlemen referred to in ~~this also~~ it and whether any of ~~these~~ them are deserving of similar recognition.

(To be put in only in letter to D.C.Shimoga)

The favour of an ~~immediate~~ very early reply is requested.

Yours sincerely,

Hs.

Extract from a representation submitted to the Dewan by the deputation of non-official gentlemen headed by Mr. Maloor Subba Rao.

The people of Thirthahalli Taluk have shown remarkable courage and presence of mind which in other places would have been fine themes for poets. In the village of Kuruvallu as many as 183 people have been rescued from the high floods by some of the enterprising gentlemen of the place. But for the resourcefulness and courage of Messrs. Agumbe Rama Rao, Ramasastry, Sarja Krishnabhatta, Kalingayyana Puttu Rao, Sankayya Setty, Puttayya Chari, Kitta Gowda and Panduranga Char, at least half of these people would have succumbed to the floods. There was about 10 feet of water in the open streets of Kuruvalli and 6 to 8 feet of water in some of the houses. These gentlemen had to do this rescuing business in a dark night when it was rather difficult to find out from which direction the sounds of the unfortunate inmates of the houses were coming. In some cases people had to be alighted from the storeys into the boats and in one case the Head Master of the Kuruvalli School was just taken out of his house by the rescue party when the building itself collapsed. Another Sheikdar Venkata Rao was about to be drowned in the floods along with his records but for the timely dd of these gentlemen. The people thus rescued included patients, women, children, pregnant ladies and parada ladies also. The loss sustained by the Kuruvalli public may be said to be of about Rs.50,000. Similar flooding and rescues have taken place in almost all the villages lying close to the banks of the river Tunga. In a village called Sivarajapura there was 6 to 8 feet of water running in the streets about 7 p.m. on the 6th August and the floods increased in the night there also. The enterprising people of the village rescued all the the lives and the cattle in the village but their moveable properties and houses were all lost. A party of 3 travellers of whom two were ladies were stuck up in a temple in the middle of the village. The villagers tried to rescue these people also by taking a raft (Catameron), over the rising waters but as the velocity of the stream was too strong their raft could not avail them and gave way in the midst of the stream. With much difficulty the rescue party were able to save themselves. The unlucky people who were caught in the floods and were hanging to the rafters of the temple roof raised a piteous cry which was heard by the people who had gone for their rescue from Thirthahalli. The rescue party which consisted of Javali Ranga Rao, Aradi Rangappa, Keelamaistry, Kadappa, Hiranyegowda and Rachappa were with much difficulty able to save their lives. The unfortunate inmates in the temple had become so desperate of saving their lives that they were all in a half conscious state. Similar was the fate of the people of Tudoorkatte and Kasaravalli. One Subbaiya Setty was the saviour in Tudoor and one Ganapiaya Setty saved the situation in Kasaravalli.

Dated, Shimoga 16th October 1923.
(Camp Mysore).

Dear Sir,

With reference to your D.O. letter No: 149 dated 14th October 1923 asking me to choose names of non-official gentlemen who may be awarded certificates &c., I have to state that all the persons are private individuals and all are reported to have rendered commendable service at the risk of their lives to the public and it is difficult to make any invidious distinction of the kind.

Rcvd. 16/10/23.

With regard to the list of persons noted in the extract from the petition presented to the Dewan at Tarikere, I beg to state that Mr. Agumbe Rama Rao and several others are reported to have done yeoman service during that anxious night and it is difficult to make selection from among these persons. But since Messrs. Agumbe Rama Rao and Ramachandrachar were the foremost being the President and the Treasurer of the Relief Committee I recommended their names also for recognition and I request that they may also be given certificates with medals.

Yours sincerely,

A V Gopalaswamy

Dear Sir,

Adverting to your D.O. No.862/C.B. dated 21st September 1923 and in continuation of my D.O. No.C.297/23-24 dated 18th September 1923 in regard to the grant of medals and Khillats to persons who displayed great pluck and courage in saving the lives of women and children during the recent floods, I write to state that the Deputy Commissioners of Mysore and Hassan report that there are no such cases in their Districts. I append in the margin the names of persons who have been of much service in this matter in the Shimoga District. The Deputy Commissioner states that these persons may find themselves out of place in the Royal presence (vide copy of his letter), I presume that what he means is that they are too poor and, as stated elsewhere, unable to go to Mysore at their own cost. On the whole it seems sufficient to grant medals as recommended by the Deputy Commissioner.

KADUR DISTRICT. 11.

Statement showing the names of persons who took an active part in affording xx relief and otherwise helping the distressed during the and after the floods.

No.	Taluk.	Name with particulars.	Nature of relief or help rendered.
1.	Koppa.	1. B.Subba Rao, Sheikdar, Koppa. 2. Sivarudriah, Sanitary Inspector, Koppa.	The house of one Narasimhaiya, Shanbhog, Nuggimakki had been surrounded by the floods of the Thunga river on the 7th of August 1923, and the walls of the western portion of the house had collapsed. The building was standing only on the pillars alone. These people were there in time to remove the females and children from that part of the house, before it collapsed under the guidance and instructions of the Amildar Mr.S.N.Srinivasa Rao, whom these had accompanied on inspection duty.
		3. Jogisetti, Sollebile. 4. Hassan Beri, Sollebile.	A cart, while crossing the Makki-Koppa halla, on its way from Guddethota to Balehonnur on the night of the 27th July 1923, was caught in the current and it was held up by a rock in the middle of the stream. There were two persons in the cart, its driver and another. Information reached Sollebile next morning and Jogisetti and Hassan Beri proceeded to the spot in company with a few Police Constables, and rescued the cart, the two persons and one bullock.
2.	Tarikere.	1. S.Narasimhaiya, son of Sivaramiah, Patel and Landholder, Sompur village, Lakkavalli Hobli.	All but one, by name Yalla had gone away to the neighbouring village, when the Somapur village was surrounded by floods in the Bhadra river. As water was rising, he(Yella) got up a tamerind tree and remained there the whole night, the depth of water there being about 6 to 7 feet for a distance of 200 yards. Patel Narasimhaiya swam to the tree the next morning and brought the person safely to the village.

P.2.

2. L.Krishnappa son of Nanjundiah, Patel and Landholder, Lakkavalli.

When the Bhadra suddenly rushed into Lakkavalli, this man persuaded the villagers and rendered all necessary help to the people to effect prompt and speedy evacuation of their houses, with their belongings.

3. Narasimharajapura.

1. G.Rajagopaliengar, Sheikdar, Balehonnur.

This man displayed great bravery, to the admiration of all the residents, even at the risk of his life, in saving about 60 oil tins of the Sowkar, Srinivasa Prabhu by swimming in the river during the floods. His presence appears to have exercised a great moral influence upon the desperate sufferers.

2. Gulam Nabi alias Miya Sab, son of Mahomed Yasim, Coffee Planter, Balehonnur.

This man in company with the aforesaid Sheikdar constructed a raft and -- succeeded in saving some boxes containing documents and valuable from being washed away by the floods. But being exhausted, he returned and asked the Sheikdar to help him in rescuing the other properties which were floating in the current. The Sheikdar swam to the spot, secured some of the boxes to the raft, swimming in the water 15 to 20 feet deep. Owing to the unequal distribution of the weight on the raft, it was upset and the Sheikdar was caught underneath it. He managed to escape twice from being drowned and returned with the properties, the raft being pulled up by Miya Sab who was on a jack tree which was also under water.

3. Kadekal Kasim Sab.
4. Abdul Rahiman son of Imam Sab.
5. Puttegowda, 6. Beera & 7. Malla.

These men are reported to have helped Amir Pacha in constructing a raft and rescuing the women and children of Haliyur.

Sringeri.

Many of the leading inhabitants of Sringeri, who owned commodious houses on higher levels are reported to have afforded shelter to the sufferers and also fed them on the morning of the 7th August 1923.
